FINCODA

A guide to university-company cooperation

Prof. Sue Baines & Jennie Shortley, Manchester Metropolitan University.

FINCODA brought together universities and companies from Finland, Germany, the Netherlands, Spain and the UK to cooperate on addressing the need to enhance innovation competencies and measure individuals' capacity for innovation. At the heart of the project was the creation of the FINCODA Innovation Barometer Assessment Tool.

Needs analysis in all partner companies

Prof. Sue Baines et. al., Manchester Metropolitan University.

Work Package 2 is entitled "Needs analysis in all partner companies". Its remit is to assess, analyse and report on perceptions of innovation, and the competencies necessary to achieve it, from the perspective of organisations as employers of innovators. This is important because FINCODA aims to extend the benefits of the INCODE Innovation Competencies Barometer into the workplace, which was developed for Institutions of Higher Education as educators of innovators...
